OBJECTIVE

Determined to design my real passion, that I would like to export in the UK; practical sense and coordination skills are necessary virtues, but the focus is on creativity, sketches and commercial presentations. I love to present what we create and I'm looking for richest markets, more extravagant and open-minded compared to the Italian market.

SUMMARY

Create a new concept of luxury interior, mixing a sense of beauty with the ability to stage and vibrating environments and people, using design, technology, history, all strictly personalized and carried out to perfection.
